At least eight persons sustained serious injuries when suspected NDFB-S militants exploded two powerful grenades at a market in Kamrup district on Monday.

The grenades exploded at 6-30 in the evening at Gasbari near Goreswar when two motorcycle born youths lobbed the grenades---one at a fish market and another at a shop nearby.

Eight people have been injured. Two of them sustained serious injuries to be shifted to the GMCH.

Police called it a handiwork of NDFB-S which has been unleashing terror these days despite tight security in some pockets.

Security forces are fanning in the entire area in search of the culprits.
