A local court in Guwahati on Saturday issued summon to Rahul Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) to appear before it on September 29 in connection with a defamation (/taxonomy/term/2151) case pending against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) vice president.

Acting on a criminal (/taxonomy/term/2493) defamation (/taxonomy/term/2151) case filed by a RSS member, the Kamrup Metropolitan Court has asked Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) to appear before the court where the petitioner has alleged that the Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) top leader (/taxonomy/term/1820), in a rally in Guwahati a couple of months back, accused RSS of killing Mahatma Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710).

It assumed significance hardly after a month Gandhi (/taxonomy/term/1710) refused to tender apology before RSS even after the Supreme Court asked him to do so. He instead said that there is no question of apologising or expressing regret.
