Guwahati under threat!

AT News · 19:19, 27 Jul 2016 · 9080 views · 1 min read

The rising water level (/taxonomy/term/2232) of the Brahmaputra (/taxonomy/term/2226) threatens to wash away the landmark areas in Guwahati very soon (/taxonomy/term/2206). The mighty river has been dangerously flowing following the incessant rains in the catchment areas in Arunachal (/taxonomy/term/2194) Pradesh. If the water level (/taxonomy/term/2232) refuses to recede, Kamrup DC office, CJM Court, GMC office might come under the surging waters (/taxonomy/term/2337) along with some parts of Fancybazar area by Thursday. The alarming rise in the water level (/taxonomy/term/2232) has forced the authorities to suspend the ferry (/taxonomy/term/2214) services on the mighty river.
