As part of the Assam government's "Sevai Samarpan: Seva Saptah" program, a mega health camp titled "Shushrusha Setu" was organized today at Chakimukh Higher Secondary School's playground for the Nazira constituency. The event was inaugurated by Nazira constituency MLA Debabrata Saikia and Tai Ahom Development Council Chairman Mayur Borgohain by lighting lamps in memory of artist Zubeen Garg.

The inauguration ceremony was attended by several dignitaries, including Nazira Co-District Commissioner Pratibha Meshram, Demow Co- District Commissioner Meenakshi Perme, Assistant Commissioner of Sivasagar District Parishmita Dhingia, Assistant Commissioners of Nazira Arunabh Sonowal and Kalyan Jyoti Hazarika, Joint Director of Health Services Dr. Makhan Chandra Kalita, Nodal Officer Dr. Souvik Bhattacharjee, and members of the Sivasagar District Project Team.

The health camp offered various health services, including registration desks, mobile laboratories, general laboratories, general OPDs, ENT, and cancer OPDs. A total of 1,247 people registered for the health camp, and 162 individuals were referred to specialized hospitals for further treatment. The camp provided health check-ups and medical services under 10 specialized departments.

The event saw significant participation from the local community, with many residents benefiting from the health services provided. The health camp is a testament to the government's commitment to providing accessible healthcare services to the people of Nazira constituency.
