Guwahati: Police Friday recovered 950 grams of Heroin from a smuggler from Sonarfuli village under Patacharkuchi police station in Barpeta district. Bagsha police carried out this operation after they got specific information.

Police caught one Anu Rabha with the Polly packed Heroin. The packet contains a brand name 'Tiger Brand' and a picture of the big cat. Police informed that the value of the drugs in black market is more then worth Rs. 45 lakhs. The peddler also informed that he collected this packet from Panjabari, in Guwahati after paying cash Rs 5 Lakhs. City police immediately searched several locations in Panjabari to nab the culprits but failed as they flew away far before.
