Yesterday, late evening, Nagaon Police arrested Hindu Yuva Chatra Parishad, central committee member Mahendra Kuwar. The Deputy S.P. of Nagaon, Naziur Rahman, revealed that Kuwar was having contact with the extremist group Bhartiya Jatiya Sena, the new organisation that is active in Nagaon since last December. Bhartiya Jatiya Sena was suspected to be involved in the last December 4th and 6th blast in Haibargaon and Itachali area of Nagaon district. Police recovered a 35 kg bomb on the 28th January last in the Haibargaon area. According to available information, Kuwar will be presented before the court.

On the other hand, Brijen Kakoti, President of Central Committee of organisation said that there is no evidence with the police to prove the allegations against Mahendra Kuwar and so he should be released immediately.
