

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

HSLC, AHM exams begin

AT News · 09:34, 17 Feb 2017 | Updated 19:11, 17 Feb 2017 · 8523 views · 1 min read

Amid an unprecedented security and CCTV vigil, the High School Certificate examination and High Madrasa examination have begun across the state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\) on Friday.

The Assam state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\) secondary education board is holding the examinations from 9 in the morning with 3,80,665 HSLC and \(/taxonomy/term/2005\)10 \(/taxonomy/term/2005\), 647 HM candidates at 855 centres across the state \(/taxonomy/term/2332\).

For the first time, the secondary education board is holding the examinations amid tight security deploying policemen to ensure normalcy. The authorities have clamped 144 CrPC in and around the centres.

CCTV cameras have been installed in many examination centres to prevent the candidates from resorting to unfair means. The examination is expected in May.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/hslc-ahm-exams-begin-18455> | Published: 17 February 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times