In a nationwide rare show of solidarity more than 1 lakh women hit the streets in Manipur (/taxonomy/term/64) with a huge human chain on Saturday demanding immediate withdrawal of the three controversial bills apart from action against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the police personnel involved in the killing of 9 agitators in Churachandpur (/taxonomy/term/2360) last week.

Organized by JAC's women wing in Churachandpur (/taxonomy/term/2360) along with Joint Philanthropic Organisation, the human chain started from Kangvai to Churachandpur (/taxonomy/term/2360) district hospital where they observed one-minute silence for souls of nine tribals killed in the orgy of Chuachandpur violence. Later the speakers pledged to carry out the fight (/taxonomy/term/2073) for withdrawal of the controversial bills.

“We are prepared give a brave fight (/taxonomy/term/2073) to force the government to keep aside the controversial bills. Otherwise, we will not let anybody to impose any suppressive bills on us,” said Siamchinthang Tangpua one of the organizers.
