Hectic confabulations grip the Opposition camp to field a consensus candidate for the Rajya Sabh polls slated for February 7.

A close door meet between AGP and AIUDF decided to field veteran journalist Haidor Hussain as the consensus candidate. But still there is hardly any chance for the opposition party. BJP made it clear that they have ideological differences with AIUDF.

AGP and AIUDF have jointly urged BJP to reconsider the decision and to help the consensus candidate win.
