Urkhao Gwra Brahma is immensely happy to have learnt that he would get the Sahitya Akademy (/taxonomy/term/1987) for 2014. Talking to Assam Times in Kokrajhar hours after his name was announced on Friday, the prolific author said that the award was beyond his expectation.

“This is a prestigious award by a big organization in the country. My name figured in the list which I did not expect. It would encourage the new writers,” said the BPPF leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) and former Rajya Sabha MP.

The eminent writer of Bodo literature has authored many epoch making books to his credit. These include his collection of poems known as “Udangnifrai Gidingfinnanwi” published by Onsumoi Library, Kokrajhar in 2012.

Brahma, the former president of All Bodo Student Union started his writing in his college life and wrote several books as well short stories. A graduate from the Kokrajhar Govt College, Brahma has authored nine books reflecting the socio-cultural life of the Bodos.
