The incessant rainfall for the past couple of days have thrown life out of gear in the town and its surrounding places. Continuous downpour which is likely to continue for next few days as per weather forecast has caused inconvenience in the form of waterlogging in various localities. The town which is surrounded by tea gardens and the region falling under high lying region is not likely to witness any flood like situation, however waterlogging and flashfloods in several localities have made Hospital road of Ward No. 3 slushy and unhygienic. The dilapidated bazaarkhola road leading from Tangla Charali Police point to Deur Path is also slushy and has made commuters life difficult.. People mostly are preferring to remain indoors and sipping coffee and tea along with their peers and family members.
