No registration fee is charged from the participants of colleges / universities across north-east inviting participation for our upcoming ISTE-workshop.

However, it is mandatory that the participant should submit a scanned copy of permission letter in prescribed format from the Principal/HOD of his/her institute mentioning that he/she is an employee of the institute and has been permitted to attend the workshop. The letter should be on the letter head of the institute, and prescribed format can be downloaded from the website <http://www.nmeict.iitkgp.ernet.in> IIT Kharagpur takes a major role in implementing the objectives of the national mission. Under the NMEICT, IIT Kharagpur is executing "Talk to 10,000 teachers", "National Programme on Technology Enhanced Learning" (NPTEL), "Pedagogic Research", "Virtual Laboratory" as major projects. Under "Talk to 10,000 Teachers" programme, IIT Kharagpur has conducted 10-day ISTE workshop on "Analog Electronics" in June, 2013 for more than 8000 Engineering College Teachers.

The next 10-day workshop is planned during 2-12 January 2014 on "Signals and Systems." IIT Kharagpur plans to conduct six such 10-day workshops during 2013-2015. In addition, IIT Kharagpur is providing help and assistance to Engineering colleges in Eastern and North-eastern India to set up more remote centres and encourage greater participation.
