ULFA chairman Arabinda Rajkhowa and his military sopkesman Raju Baruah have been remanded to judicial custody after they were produced before the camp court inside the Guwahati Central jail on Saturday.

Rajkhowa's security guard Raja Borah who was also produced in the camp court would be taken to Dibrugarh in connection with a pending case against him. Rajkhowa and two others were remanded to 9 day police custody in connection with serial explosion in the Guwahati city on January 1 this year.

Meanwhile, a set of leaflets are being distributed among the journalists by an unknown circle urging both government and ULFA for holding a meaningful dialogue immediately.
