All Assam Karmachari Parishad protest against the enhancement of the Bhaskar Barua-led Assam Salary Commission for the second time. Protesting against the failure of the Commission and for the demand of the submission of the enhancement of the salary package of the state government employees in the lines of central govt employees from the year 2006, All Assam Karmachari Parishad held a huge gathering at Barpeta Madhab Choudhury College premises on July 14. Addressing in this meeting Basab Kalita, Secy, All Assam Karmachari Parishad said that it was a unfortunate matter that not only the salary commission but not even a single commission of state government could not be able to submit their report in proper time. He added that despite the last few years cooperation of All Assam Karmachari Parishad by increasing work culture and also endeavourance of solving various problems, the state government increasing the time of the salary commission which actually depressed the state government workers.
