

Kaziranga National Park opens for tourists

Comments 0

Koushik Hazarika 31 October 2011 7295 views

Kaziranga National Park (KNP) reopened for tourists by Assam Forest Minister Rakibul Hussain on Saturday at a function held at Mihimukh inside the park. Elephant and jeep safaris for tourists in the Kohora, Bagori, Agoratoli and Burhapahar ranges also opened for tourists. In the occasion Mr. Hussain said "This year we are expecting more number of tourist from from the country and abroad". He also hope that the KNP would evolve into a major tourist attraction in the Northeast and that no tourist visiting the region as a whole would leave it without having a KNP taste. He also announced the dues clear of hundreds of casual KNP forest guards who have been without salaries for the past seven months within seven days.

Koushik Hazarika

Free, freedom

BY KOUSHIK HAZARIKA

HS result on 31st May

Bengaluru - Top destination to study in India

KNP to open on Oct 2

Rains wreak havoc in Guwahati

Will BJP-BPF honeymoon end?

ON THIS DAY

Ao and Latour

AJP, Rajgor Dal likely to have poll deal

Why the economy going down

Noted academician Karendra Nath Brahma passes away

Silchar buckles up to celebrate International day for Disaster Reduction
