Hours after he was elected as (/taxonomy/term/2291) the CLP leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) in Arunachal (/taxonomy/term/2194) Pradesh, Pema Khandu staked claimed to form the new Government in Arunachal (/taxonomy/term/2194) Pradesh on Saturday. Immediately after the CLP meeting in Itanagar (/taxonomy/term/2394), accompanied by Nabam (/taxonomy/term/2429) Tuki, Kalikho Pul, Takam Sanjay and Podi Richo, the former chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) minister's son meet Governor (/taxonomy/term/2435) Tathagat Roy (/taxonomy/term/1639) and staked the claim (/taxonomy/term/1755). But before that in the morning, Tuki resigned as (/taxonomy/term/2291) Chief Minister. These scheme of things have forced Roy (/taxonomy/term/1639) to suspend the assembly floor test.

The Assembly has a strength of 58 which comprises 11 from and (/taxonomy/term/1690)2 (/taxonomy/term/1690) independents and 45 from Congress (/taxonomy/term/90). Khandu is expected to take the oath in a day or two.

Your Excellency,

I have been elected as the Leader of the Congress Legislature Party by the Congress Legislatures of the State in the CLP meeting held today i.e 16th July 2016. The copy of the declaration signed by the Congress Legislatures is enclosed.

I being the Leader of the Congress Legislature Party with support of 44 (forty four) Congress Legislatures along with the support of 2(two) Independent MLAs, hereby stake my claim to form the new Government in the State.

I would, therefore, request Your Excellency to invite me at the earliest to form the Government.

With warm regards,

Yours faithfully

(Pema Khandu)

Shri Tathagata Roy,
His Excellency the Governor,
Arunachal Pradesh,
