KOKRAJHAR: The Kamatapur Liberation Organization (KLO) Coordination Front consisting former cadres of KLO has urged upon the KLO members who are still struggling with arms to come to the main stream to participate in peace process.

KLO is a militant outfit organization seeking Sovereign Kamatapur led by Jiban Singha.

The former KLO members said that the arms struggle against the state should stop. The members who are still in the jungles must avoid the arms struggle and come to the main stream for peace talks to solve their problems and demands through the political dialogue.

The former KLO members observed the 26th martyrs day of the organisation on Thursday at Chandrapara here with day long programme scheduled.
