

Kokrajhar remains deserted 24 hour later of blast

Comments 2

Pranjal Barua 31 October 2008 13352 views

Kokrajhar observes a total shutdown after the serial blast rocked the town last Thursday. The death toll in the district headquarter rises up to 21 and the injured to nearly 57.

The town along with the capital of the state Assam and Barpeta and Bongaigaon was a part of the serial blast which claims a total of 73 death till reported and more than 500 injured.

Two have been reported to succumbed to death in the morning at GMCH and one at GNRC while was going under medical treatment.

We will deliver a rupees of one lac to all the victims and their families and 35 thousand to the injured", announced Hahgrama Mohilery, the BTC chief who immediately came to inspect the spot after the blast.

Today the roads and the offices as well as the colleges looks deserted due to the panic existences. " We think we are not safe and now its impossible to handle the trauma of the incidents. Our children are not safe and we are not sending them to the schools", said Lakhimi Basumatary, mother of two.

The Biswa Hindu parishad also called for a 12 hour bandh on the crisis tomorrow. Today, the dawn to dusk strike has been called by the locals who said to be mourning over the deaths of the inmates. The death toll of the town is expect to increase by evening as some the injured are taken to West Bengal are now reported serious in condition.

The Union Home Minister Shiv Raj Patil also visited the town and expressed deep gratitude for the people and the victims and urged the local to maintain peace to restrain the situation.

Pranjal Barua

BY PRANJAL BARUA

One more killed in Mob in Ganeshguri, Curfew continues in capital

Peace or no peace: Five ULFA killed in encounter

New Tourism constitution for Assam

Disillusionment leads 39 more militants to surrender

ON THIS DAY

Salesian College Siliguri hosts youth film festival from 22 countries

International Disaster risk reduction day observed

Rajor Dol starts campaign in Dhemaji

NDFB-S link man held with arms

SAI women beat Bhutan FC
