

LATEST NEWS

Langpih still apple of discord

AT News · 10:01, 12 Sept 2017 · 15919 views · 1 min read

Langpih is still a bone of contention between Assam and Meghalaya (/taxonomy/term/2343). After a brief lull, the tiny area along the inter state (/taxonomy/term/2332) border strikes no less attention where Dispur has alleged non stop (/taxonomy/term/2235) encroachment on the soil of Assam by Meghalaya (/taxonomy/term/2343).

The allegations of fresh encroachment by the neighbouring north eastern state (/taxonomy/term/2332) brought by Assam minister Chandra Mohan Patowary on the floor of the Assembly on Monday.

Patowary informed the House that Meghalaya (/taxonomy/term/2343) has been constructing roads (/taxonomy/term/2454), schools, churches and houses within the territory of Assam in Langpih seven years an orgy of clashes along the inter state (/taxonomy/term/2332) border.

Patowary said the government was aware of the encroachment by Meghalaya (/taxonomy/term/2343) in the Lampi area which falls in Boko revenue circle of Kamrup district.

Patowary said that the neighbouring state (/taxonomy/term/2332) keeps encroachment despite the relentless efforts for an amicable solution in the form of dialogues at various level (/taxonomy/term/2232). Even the chief minister level (/taxonomy/term/2232) talks did take place a couple of years back apart from the chief secretary levels.

With a view to ensuring peace along the interstate border, Patowary said two border outposts, at Lower and Upper Lampi have been actively operating.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/langpih-still-apple-of-discord-19845> | Published: 12 September 2017 |
© 2026 Assam Times