

Lathi charge in Doomar Dalang Tea Estate; several injured

editor · 04:01, 12 Feb 2008 · 16778 views · 1 min read

Several tea garden people including Moran's Assam Chah Mazdoor general secretary Lakheswar Tati, have been injured in police lathicharge made to quell the situation while these people were attacking the Assam Chah Mazdoor office in Moran.

Hundreds of tea garden labourers at the Doomar dalang Tea Estate attacked the Assam Chah Mazdoor office in Moran in protest against the lock out of the garden from January 28. Moranhat police pounded on these striking people with lathicharge. It left several people injured. A seriously injured Tati has been shifted to the Assam Medical College Hospital. The entire incident took place following a clash over distribution of Congres ticket for the recent panchayat polls. The clash divided the people while a faction was backed by the management. Caught in the clash, the management declared the lockout of the estate on 28th of January.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/lathi-charge-in-doomar-dalang-tea-estate-several-injured-997> |
Published: 12 February 2008 | © 2026 Assam Times