Only Congress can ensure peace and development in Assam. That's why, Congress should be voted afresh. This was more or less of what Rahul Gandhi said when he was addressing a huge poll rally in Biswanath Chariali on Thursday.

In his clarion call, Gandhi said that Congress has almost ended an era of violence and insurgency only by a deep sincere initiative of love and brotherhood.

According to him, the process of development took gained momentum during the Tarun Gogoi government in Dispur and the UPA government at the Centre.
