

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LS polls in Assam on April 16, 23

editor · 04:10, 3 Mar 2009 · 9467 views · 1 min read

Assam is all set to go to the Lok Sabha polls in two phases. Announcing this on Monday in Delhi, Chief Election Commissioner N Gopaloswamy said the state will go to the first phase of polls on April 16 in Dhubri, Silchar, Karimganj and the autonomous hills districts. Jorhat, Guwahati, Nagaon, Barpeta, Lakhimpur, Tezpur and Dibrugarh constituencies would go the polls on April 23.

According to the poll schedule, the nomination for the April 16 poll will be issued on March 23 while the liast date will be March 28. These would scrutinized on April 30 and the date for withdrawal of nomination has been fixed on March 31.

The nomination papers for the next phase would be issued on March 28 while the last date will be May 3. The counting of votes will take place on May 16 along with other parts of the state.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/lis-polls-in-assam-on-april-16-23-2633> | Published: 3 March 2009 | © 2026 Assam Times