Asam Jatiya Parishad president Lurinjyoti Gogoi categorically ruled out any alliance with a national party for the upcoming Assam assembly elections.

The AJP president today called on Akhil Gogoi at the Guwahati Medical College & Hospital, where he has been undergoing treatment for last 3-4 months.

After meeting the jailed Rajbor Dal leader, Gogoi spoke to media and said that the newly floated regional parities would jointly fight in the upcoming assembly election.

“We, the AJP and the Rajbor Dal formed an alliance. But we will not form any alliance with any national party or communal party,” he added.

Meanwhile, the Congress formed a pre-poll alliance with five other parties including the AIUDF. Many including noted intellectual Dr. Hiren Gohain, who also happens to be one of the advisers of the Rajbor Dal, have openly called for a larger alliance of all the opposition parties against the BJP.
