Meghalaya (/taxonomy/term/2343) police have finally nabbed MLA Julius Dorphang on Guwahati on Saturday who was wanted in connection with a sex racket.

The independent legislator was arrested from a building in Guwahati city (/taxonomy/term/1957) with the help of Guwahati police whom the Meghalaya (/taxonomy/term/2343) counterpart requested for help to nab the MLA to be charged with running a sex racket in Shillong.

Immediately after the arrest (/taxonomy/term/1733), he was brought to Shillong where a team of senior police officials has been interrogating him.

A local court in Shillong on January 4 issued a non-bailable arrest (/taxonomy/term/1733) warrant against (/taxonomy/term/1929) Dorphang forcing police to intensify the operation.

His involvement came to light after the employee of a guest house was caught (/taxonomy/term/2308) where the victim was a 14 year old girl. The rebel turn legislator was booked him under section 366 (A) of the IPC and registered section 3 (a)/4 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (/taxonomy/term/1974) (POCSO Act (/taxonomy/term/1974)) and under section 5 of the Immoral Trafficking (/taxonomy/term/271) Prevention Act (/taxonomy/term/1974) (ITPA) against (/taxonomy/term/1929) him.
