Caught in a barrage of criticism over his absence from the Rajya Sabha polls, AIUDF legislator Aatur Rahman Majarbhuyan blames it all on the party president Badaruddin Ajmal Seth for it.

Talking to reporters immediately after landing at the Silchar Airport on Sunday, he said that it was Ajmal who forced him to shy away from the exercise.

According to him, Ajmal assured him of initiatives to manage any situation in his absence. He said it was ready to face any action from the party leadership.
