Guwahati: A big blow awaits Congress 4 months ahead of the assembly polls leaving the grand old party in dire-straits. Senior leader and 4 time legislator from Golaghat Ajanta Neog is set to join BJP.

Neog, who called on Chief Minister at the latter's official residence is expected to join BJP on December 26 when Union home minister Amit Shah is scheduled to visit the state.

Same it is expected in Roseline Tirkey. The Congress MLA from Sarupathar recently visited the local BJP office fuelling the speculations are she is likely to join the ruling party.

Congress MLA from Lakhpathar in Barak Valley Rajdwip Goala is also formally joining the ruling party. The opposition party has already expelled Goala alleging his involvement in the anti party activities.
