Nazira, February 19: In a dramatic development, police apprehended a man with a large quantity of suspected drugs right in front of the Simaluguri Police Station in Nazira on Wednesday.

According to reports, police intercepted a passenger Magic vehicle (registration number AS-04 AC-3916) that was travelling from Sivasagar town to Simaluguri. Acting on a reliable tip-off, officers stopped the vehicle as it reached the front of the police station and carried out a thorough search.

During the operation, police recovered a substantial quantity of suspected narcotic substances from the vehicle. The driver was immediately taken into custody.

The arrested individual has been identified as Bhastav Gogoi, a resident of Cherakapar in Sivasagar district. During preliminary interrogation, he reportedly admitted that the drugs were being transported to Simaluguri.

Notably, in recent weeks, the circulation of drugs and other intoxicating substances has reportedly increased at an alarming rate across various parts of the Nazira Co-District. Police have launched a detailed investigation to ascertain the source of the consignment and identify any possible links to a wider network.

Further legal proceedings are underway.
