The Manipur (/taxonomy/term/64) High Court has summoned Bihar political leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) Papu Yadav for forcibly halting a New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) bound train in Bihar recently in search of Manipur (/taxonomy/term/64) passengers. The court issued the notice when it took up a public interest litigation filed by Manipur (/taxonomy/term/64) JD(U) president M Tombi. The court further sent notice to the Bihar government in connection with the incident where Yadav and his supporters stopped the train to seek Manipuris which disrupted normal (/taxonomy/term/2062) flow of railway traffic.
