A lower court on Monday sent Kamal Medhi to jail after he was produced before it in connection with a fresh case against him.

Amid tight security, police produced the KMSS general secretary before the Kamrup Chief Judicial magistrate on Tuesday where he was remanded to judicial custody.

He was produced before the court in connection with a fresh case registered against him in Bharalumukh police station.

On the other hand, police have yet to get Medhi in their remand in connection with the Pranab Boro self immolation case. The Gauhati High court is considering a petition from police seeking Medhi in their custody.
