Tension prevails at Maibang and Haflong following death of a minor girl of Class VIII of allegedly after she was raped by her local guardian Abhijit @ Bablu Hasnu aged 45 years a 4rth grade employee of Maibang Civil Sub-Division Office on Sunday at about 7.30 PM.

According to the FIR lodged by mother of the victim Joino Sengyung at Haflong Police Station, one Abjola Sengyung along with his brother had been the tenant of accused Abhijit @ Bablu Hasnu under his guardianship while studying in a School at Maibang. On Sunday last at 7.30 Pm Bablu took her to a jungle by his bike and raped her. Hearing the cry of the victim neighbour rushed to the spot and caught Bablu red-handed and handed over to Maibang police station and the victim was admitted to Maibang Hospital after medical examination. When her condition deteriorated she was reffered to Haflong Civil Hospital on Monday and in the mid night she succumbed to her injury at Haflong. Following the FIR the police came into action and the victim's body was sent for post mortem.

Meanwhile the Jadikhe Naisho Hosom(JNH) Dimasa Apex body strongly condemned the rape while appealing to the administration to book the culprit according to law so that such incident does not occur in future.
