The youth Pritam Bhattacharjee went missing from Naugachia railway station on July 9 finally traced down at Kataria foot over-bridge on Sunday in murdered position. While travelling in Awadh-Assam Express (he boarded the train at Guwahati on 8 July) train he went down the station in search of missing lap-top bag taken by four youths. But, later he went missing from the station premises.

Finally, police came into action but they could not trace him till he was alive. The reason for his abduction-turned-murder seems to be his lap-top, but police is yet to establish the real reason behind the motive.
