

LATEST NEWS

MP demands plebiscite on Bodoland

AT News · 15:24, 25 Apr 2017 · 14859 views · 1 min read

Amid an attempt to settle the vexed Bodoland issue through negotiation, an independent non Boro MP from BTAD area have dared the government to hold plebiscite to ascertain the veracity of the decade old demands (/taxonomy/term/2467).

Addressing a press conference just before the tripartite talks in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) to discuss the demand, MP Naba Kumar Sarania said most of the people will vote against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the separate Bodoland.

He accused the Centre of trying to divide Assam where the Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) as (/taxonomy/term/2291) a nation will have to pay heavy price (/taxonomy/term/1993) only because of the government mistake.

Sarania represents BTAD areas in Parliament (/taxonomy/term/1963) alleged that the Centre and state (/taxonomy/term/2332) governments have never been taking him into confidence when they deal (/taxonomy/term/1922) with the demand. “I am of no importance. In Delhi I am less important than Hagrama Mohilary (/taxonomy/term/1896),” said the MP.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/mp-demands-plebiscite-on-bodoland-18892> | Published: 25 April 2017
| © 2026 Assam Times