Two suspected Muslim United Liberation Tigers of Assam (MULTA) has been arrested by the 43 Assam Rifles in a combing operation from the Koliabhumura area in Tezpur on 29-07-08 evening. The operation has been operated under the leadership of Gurinder Singh, Major, 43 Assam Rifles following a specific information. The arrested MULTA cadres are Sahabuddsin and Anand Ali. They belong to Karimganj and Nagaon district respectively.

During that operation, they recovered 6 bullets, 2 mobile phones and 2 US Made revolvers from their custody. Later they were handed over to the Tezpur Police. This incident showing the increasing movement of the terrorist groups like MULTA and also alarmingly showing serious concern to the security of the State as well as to the country ahead of India's Independence Day to be celebrated on August 15.
