According to report alleged by the photo journalists that, Nagaon district Congress Committee leader Pradip Hazarika and other party workers misbehaved those photo journalists, when they were on the way for taking photographs while Assam CM addressing a press conference inside the newly constructed Rajiv Bhawan.

According to them, they have been invited, but later on the district level Congress party leaders did not allow them to enter the room. They permitted only three selected journalists to attend the press conference inside a room of Rajiv Bhawan. The Photo journalists of Nagaon condemned the incident and demanded for Assam CM's interference in the matter.
