Shock and anger still are simmering in Rongapara (</taxonomy/term/2163>) a day after bizarre incident where Nanu (</taxonomy/term/2162>) Mirdha in the Tarajuli Tea Estate beheaded Sanatan Bag at his residence.

Local residents suspect that the beheading could be a case of child sacrifice as idols of gods and goddesses and other religious material were recovered from the place where the boy's body was found (</taxonomy/term/1802>). Locals allege that the accused was a tantrik.

When the shocking news started spreading like wild fire, the local residents in large number raided his residence, dragged him out and lynched him.
