

Narrow escape for 150 passengers on river

editor · 02:49, 31 Aug 2010 · 48459 views · 1 min read

At least 150 passengers were rescued after the ferry carrying them developed a technical snag in the strong current in Lakhimpur district on Monday. According to report, as the Inland Water Transport department-owned S V Bebejia, carrying more than 150 passengers, developed a technical snag about 32 kms from Lakhimpur its engine stopped functioning in the river Subansiri. Another ferry was pressed into service and the passengers were rescued.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/narrow-escape-for-150-passengers-on-river-4145> | Published: 31 August 2010 | © 2026 Assam Times