“History (/taxonomy/term/2024) is the back-bone of a nation and no nation can thrive without its history (/taxonomy/term/2024),” said Mayur Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799), a well-known writer (/taxonomy/term/2060) in a seminar organized by Nazira Press Club on its 26th Foundation Day on Saturday at Nazira. The seminar on “Study of History (/taxonomy/term/2024) and the identity crisis (/taxonomy/term/2355) of the ethnic people of Assam” was organized in the memory of journalist Pabonath Sarmah and Nilo Guhain with a day-long programme that saw distinguished gathering. Mayur Borah and Rajdip Bailung Baruah were the chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) guests. Both the speakers dwelt at length on the negative effects of globalization and free market economy that has been depriving the ethnic people of their rights (/taxonomy/term/1990) on their own land. Hiranya (/taxonomy/term/2240) Kumar Bhattachaya, Hemakanta Sarmah, Keshab Borgohain (/taxonomy/term/1667) and Prasanta Dutta were felicitated by the Nazira Press Club on the occasion.
