KOKRAJHAR: NDFB(P) has threatened to pull out of the peace process with the Centre if the security forces keep arresting their rebels under ceasefire.

The Bodo rebel outfit who struck peace deal (/taxonomy/term/1922) with the government a couple of years back warned it hours after CRPF jawans based in Mazbat (/taxonomy/term/2517) arrested one of their fellow rebels B Khobam from his rented house at Bapuji Nagar in Udalguri (/taxonomy/term/113) on Friday.

Publicity secretary SSangjarang in a statement called the arrest a violation of the ceasefire pact with the Centre since the security forces did not take necessary permission from the authority.
