

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

NEDA holds huge summit

AT News · 13:11, 13 Jul 2016 | Updated 14:07, 13 Jul 2016 · 10082 views · 1 min read

BJP and its like minded parties in the north eastern states held a huge convention in Guwahati two years ahead of the assembly polls in the six states of the region. Dozens of BJP leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) and their counterparts in the regional parties have rubbed shoulders in Guwahati on Wednesday to ensure a BJP-led government in the entire region.

BJP president Amit Shah (/taxonomy/term/2123) along with several other saffron top guns attended the meeting held under the umbrella of North East (/taxonomy/term/2419) Democratic Alliance in Panjabari. Assam Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal was among those who attended the meeting which pledged a non Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) government in the region.

Top leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) from AGP, BPF, NPF, Arunachal (/taxonomy/term/2194) Congress (/taxonomy/term/90), MPP, NPP and SDF participated in the convention of the newly floated forum.

The saffron party got a huge boost when it shown a commendable victory in the recently assembly polls in Assam before forming the BJ-P led government.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/neda-holds-huge-summit-17239> | Published: 13 July 2016 | © 2026 Assam Times