

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

SOCIETY

Nehru Centre celebrates Bhupen Hazarika

AT News · 21:42, 2 Sept 2013 · 15223 views · 1 min read

Assam has been fortunate in giving birth to a great musical genius in Bhupen Hazarika. It is a significant step towards our endeavour to take Dr. Bhupen Hazarika to the global forum of his artistic excellence and qualities of head and heart set the perfect example of an international artiste, on the eve of his 87th birth anniversary - Indians, Bangladeshi and Assamese artists united to celebrate the musical journey of Dr. Bhupen Hazarika at Nehru Centre, Mayfair, London on Friday 6th, September, 2013 organised by Rini Kakati, Assam Co-ordinator for UK.

The meeting will be chaired by Dr. Virander Paul, Deputy High Commissioner of India. Also attending the event will be His Excellency, Mr. Mohamed Mijarul Quayes, Bangladesh High Commissioner is a patron of the arts and has an extensive collection of art works and artefacts, Lord Sheikh & Lady Sheikh, Yavar Abbas, writer, broadcaster and filmmaker, Rita Payne, President, Commonwealth Journalists Association, Emma Achara, representing Mayor of London and Cllr. Sunil Chopra, Deputy Mayor, Southwark

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/nehru-centre-celebrates-bhupen-hazarika-8804> | Published: 2 September 2013 | © 2026 Assam Times