Brazilian Death Metal Band NervoChaos during a photo call at Kamakhya Temple, Guwahati. The Band was on its first Asia tour as a part of its global promotional gig shedule and performed for the first time at a city pub recently. Seen in this photograph are Guiller Cruz - Vocal & Guitar, Luiz Henrique Parisi (Quinho) - Guitar, Felipe Freitas- Bass and Edu Lane - Drums. According to a web report NervoChaos gained cult status in the extreme music scene due to their hard work over the past years, offering a sonic extravaganza in a unique way. Their demo-tapes have become collectors items in the underground, supporting their regular releases. Formed in the Spring of 1996 in São Paulo, Brazil NervoChaos shared stages with a number of popular international bands. The current NervoChaos tour has 3 events in the next 27 days, ending in Pará Brazil on Saturday November 12th.
