Namrup:- After 12 years of intense demand, the Fourth Unit of the Brahmaputra Valley Fertilizer Corporation Limited is going to be a reality.

According to Dibrugarh MP Rameswar Teli, the cabinet memorandum is in process and after the Karnataka assembly polls the cabinet is expected to approve the much awaited project.

Teli, who was attending the Bihu festival here on Saturday said the project would be a public- private joint venture, where Rashtriya Chemical and Fertilizer (RCF) will invest 52% , Oil 26% , Assam Government 11% ,and BVFCL 11% stake.

Teli further felicitated Asomiya Pratidin correspondent from Namrup Smriti Rekha Kalita for receiving a coveted award for journalism.
