Family members of NLFB leader M Batha have expressed their happiness because M Batha and other members of the militant outfit returned to the mainstream on Thursday

M Batha is originally from Daloabari village of Kokrajhar district.

Family members of Batha said that they have returned home as people always wanted peace and harmony among the society.

"We are very happy and excited with information of M Batha has arrived in the soil of Assam state", said elder sister of M Batha, Bibharani Brahma.
