A soon to be convened Congress legislature party meet will deal with the deepening dissidence drama within the party.

According to sources, AICC is all set to send an observer this week to read the pulse of the dissident MLAs and minister.

Sources said that the party high command has asked senior leader Motilal Vora as central observer with a hope that he would restore stability in the Congress legislature party.

This has forced the dissident lots remain silent till the CLP meet in Guwahati.
