

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

No let-up in flood fury

AT News · 13:47, 10 Jul 2016 · 10350 views · 1 min read

Flood problem refuses to improve in Assam on Sunday following the incessant rains that lashed the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) during the last couple of days. The river Brahmaputra (/taxonomy/term/2226) and its major tributaries have been flowing above the danger (/taxonomy/term/1965) level (/taxonomy/term/2232) rendering over (/taxonomy/term/2166) (/taxonomy/term/1690)2 (/taxonomy/term/1690) lakh people homeless in ten (/taxonomy/term/2312) district. The worst-hit districts include Jorhat, Lakhimpur, Goalpara, Dhemaji, Majuli, Sonitpur where the government steps up relief and rescue operations. Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal, who reviewed the flood scene in Dispur has asked the officials to closely monitor the situation.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/no-let-up-in-flood-fury-17217> | Published: 10 July 2016 | © 2026 Assam Times