

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

---

LATEST NEWS

No let-up in flood: Toll 36

AT News · 12:47, 30 Jul 2016 · 7078 views · 1 min read

The overall flood scene refuses to improve on Saturday where the toll has gone up to 36 following the death of 8 more people on Friday alone.

The river Brahmaputra and its tributaries have still been flowing dangerously submerging more areas in 22 districts affecting over 25 lakh people.

Apart from breaching many embankments, vital roads \(/taxonomy/term/2454\) and bridges in the flood hit areas have been washed away rendering lakhs of people homeless.

The worst-hit districts include Lakhimpur, Dhemaji, Sivasagar, Golaghat, Bongaigaon, Jorhat, Barpeta, Goalpara, Dhubri, Darrang, Sonitpur, Kokrajhar, Biswanath, Nalbari, Baksa, Udalguri, Kamrup (M), Chirang, Kamrup, South Kamrup and Morigaon \(/taxonomy/term/101\) where the government has set up almost 500 relief camps \(/taxonomy/term/2017\) for the marooned people.

Army, NDRF, SDRF have been deployed in relief and rescue operation in the affected areas. Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal has asked the authority to ensure sufficient flood, water and medicine \(/taxonomy/term/2474\) to the affected people.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

---

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/no-let-up-in-flood-toll-36-17388> | Published: 30 July 2016 | © 2026 Assam Times