Dissident camp is meeting on Saturday in Dispur to fine tune their strategies in the Assam Assembly. But they are unlikely to create any scene on the floor from Monday.

The dissident legislators led by Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma have been trying to corner the chief minister Tarun Gogoi and his loyalists.

But there has been steep fall in the number of the dissident camp where one after another legislators have been joining the Gogoi camp.

Sources told Assam Times that the dissident camp is likely to remain silent following the recent attempt for patch-up between Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi and outgoing cabinet minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma.

APYC president Piyush Hazarika, who is one of the close associates of Dr Sarma recently called on Gogoi in New Delhi where he is believed to have agreed to toe on the party line to avoid high command's action.

Earlier Dr Sarma announced that dissident Congress legislators would be playing the role of “constructive opposition” and oppose “anti-people” policies of the State government, but would obey the party whip whenever it is issued.
