

OIL office sealing: Student bodies cry foul

Comments 0

pbaruah 15 October 2007 9566 views

Assam's students bodies blame it all on the OIL chairman MR Pasrija for the sealing of its office in New Delhi.

The leaders of the All Assam Students' Union (AASU) here demand proper inquiry into the whole incident and that the report should be made public.

They also demanded to turn the Duliajan administrative office of the company into a full-fledged corporate office.

President of All Moran Students' Union Birinchi Moran, expressed deep anguish over the incident saying the headquarters of public sector companies such as the OIL and ONGC should be shifted to Assam.

Duliajan regional unit of the AASU says normal functioning of the office has been severely hampered due to the sealing.

In a statement, Anil Gogoi and Mahendra Dutta both president and general secretary urge OIL authorities to ensure that important documents are not lost or damaged as a result of the sealing.

A day after the New Delhi-based corporate office of the Oil India Limited was sealed by Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) officials on Friday, reactions have started pouring in, specially with the AASU flaying the OIL higher-ups, particularly CMD, for the whole incident.

Notably, the OIL, which houses in a rented premises at 5 Sikander Road in New Delhi, was sealed on Friday by the MCD.

This, it may be added, was done in conformity with the Supreme Court ruling in which the apex court had asked the MCD to seal all commercial establishments located in residential areas of the national capital.

pbaruah

BY PBARUAH

Gogoi comes up with steps to check infiltration

Dreaded ULFA leader apprehended

AAKRSU activists arrested; 1000 kamatapur bandh on Sunday

Rabha Hasongs withdraws strike

Rajdhani Blast: NSG to assist probe

ON THIS DAY

Road safety awareness programe held in Kokrajhar

Believers Eastern Church Satgaon Mission Diocese Cleanliness Drive

Why has Egg become Danger for Manipur?

Orthopaedic doctors to conduct media OPD clinic

Believers Eastern Church Satgaon Mission Diocese Organises Swachta Hi Sewa
