Let's sing it aloud. 'On your mark, get set...go'. Well, i am not talking about a marathon race. Voiceless, were they, when Mumbai was under seige by terrorists. The reason is very simple, they act the same way and there is nothing that distinguish them from terrorist activities. They called themselves "the brand ambassadors" of the Indian culture, who don't like to see women going to pubs. Yet, it's definitely a part of our culture - everyone loves socialisation because our culture has taught us so. Shameless, nothing worth than calling so, they cannot serve even their own mother who gave them life. Can they think of something worthwhile...? The answer is $100 \text{ minus } 100 = 0$. A simple arithmetic, sure. Therefore, they must be a threat to our lives and freedom - must be crackdown put into bars.
