One unidentified man died in a powerful bomb explosion at Umrangso in Dima Hasao on Monday night at about 12.20 am at a place 50 metres away from Umrangso market creating panic among the people of Umrangsu.

Army and police rushed to the spot. The security sources believed that the man who died in the explosion was about to plant the bomb at the market. The man slipped on the road as the road was slippery which has triggered the explosion. Superintendent of Police, Dima Hasao, Sri Mugdhajyoti Mahanta has rushed to Umrangsu to take the stock of the situation. No organisation has claimed the responsibility of the blast. The intensity of the bomb was so powerful that the body of the victim was blown into pieces.

Till the filing of this report his identity could not be ascertained.
